

Analyse

What evidence can you find ... ?
How is ... related to ... ?
What motive [bias] is there ... ?
How would you classify ... ?
What are the features [parts] of ... ?
How would you categorise ... ?
Can you make a distinction between ... and ... ?
What is the function of ... ?
What ideas justify ... ?
What inference can you make ... ?
What conclusion[s] can you draw ... ?
What is the theme ... ?

analysis
comes from questions like these

Compared to ...
The best part ...
On the positive side ...
An interesting part is ...
Take a small section like ...
One logical sequence seems to be ...
Similarly ...
In contrast ...
From ... we can infer that ...
... is justified by ...
The function of ... is to ...
We can distinguish ...

Analyse:

group
order inspect examine contrast compare investigate distinguish categorise
survey
graph

Analysis requires you to break down what you've learned so you can recognise, identify, distinguish & infer assumptions, opinions, bias, & frameworks.